"FESTIVAL OF WEEKS"
MAY 15TH & 16TH

Shavuot, the Festival of Weeks, is the second of the three major festivals with both historical and agricultural significance (the other two are Passover & Sukkot). Agriculturally, it commemorates the time when the first fruits were harvested and brought to the Temple, and is known as Hag ha-Bikkurim (the Festival of the First Fruits). Historically, it celebrates the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai, and is also known as Hag Matan Torateinu (the Festival of the Giving of Our Torah).

Significance: Remembers the giving of the Torah;
also a harvest festival

Observances: Studying Torah

Length: 2 days (Some: 1 day)

Customs: Eating dairy foods

Older Americans Month 2013

Every year since 1963, May has been the month to appreciate and celebrate the vitality and aspirations of older adults and their contributions and achievements. It is a proud tradition that shows our nation's commitment to honor the value that elders continue to contribute to our communities. This year's Older Americans Month theme—"Unleash the Power of Age!"—emphasizes the important role of older adults. This May, communities across the nation will recognize older Americans as productive, active, and influential members of society.

Older Americans Month celebrations will acknowledge the value that older adults continue to bring to our communities by making an effort to applaud recent achievements of local elders and inviting them to share the activities they do to unleash the power of age.

While B'nai B'rith provides services, support, and resources to older adults year-round, Older Americans Month is a great opportunity to show special appreciation! We will continue to provide opportunities for elders to come together and share their experiences with one another, as well as with individuals of other generations.

B'nai B'rith encourages you to take part in the celebrations by sharing your Older Americans Month resolutions.

To learn more about activities and events planned for Older Americans Month, or to find ideas about what you can do to unleash the power of age, contact Ann Marie Bass, Activities Coordinator @ B'nai B'rith.
