

Dining Services Wait Staff

The JCH Corporation of Metropolitan New Jersey is seeking an enthusiastic and competent wait staff for its Senior Housing Communities dining services. Reporting directly to the Dining Manger, this position is part-time, with potential growth and expansion within the company. The position requires cooking and food preparation skills, ability to stock food pantry and assist with catering events. Candidates must have their own form of transportation between Whippany, West Orange and South Orange.

Responsibilities include:

- Ensure that meals are served in accordance with residents specific requests or your supervisor's pre-approved resident's requests
- Reports and confers with the Dining Room Manager or Chef regarding status of residents, families and staff as related to dietary issues
- Maintain a clean kitchen and storage areas;
- Ensure that food is prepared in accordance with sanitary regulations
- Maintain work area in a safe, sanitized and orderly fashion.

Required Qualifications include:

- Experience in the serving of food in an institutional or retail setting.
- Additional relevant experience can substitute for education.
- Ability to speak and understand Basic English.
- Food Handler Certification preferred but not required.
- Ability to understand and follow instruction(s)
- Professional attitude and appearance;
- Ability to get to and from workplaces.
- Ability to maintain and ensure resident safety.

Hours: Part-time

Salary: $10/hour

Start Date: asap

To Apply: If interested in the position, please contact HR

This is an Equal Employment Opportunity.