High Holiday Greetings from Rabbi Richard Kirsch

Let us leave the shul today with the message of the Shofar: Ha-yom, today and not only yesterday and tomorrow. This very day we shall be more agreeable, more responsive, more cheerful, more charitable. This very day we shall make a friend feel good, compliment a neighbor, forgive a loved one. This Musaf we shall pray with renewed kavvanah (concentration). This year we shall strengthen as never before our devotion to and love of everything Jewish.

May G-d give us courage- today; may He bless us- today; and may He endow us with genuine greatness- today.

With such commitment do we enter the new year, seeking to fashion lives of truth, dedicated to G-d, worthy of his blessing for a K'siva V'chasimah Tova, a good New Year.

Amen

Rabbi Richard Kirsch
