High Holiday Greetings from Rabbi Richard Kirsch

During the High Holiday season, we will hear the call of the Shofar. Its sounds are designed to penetrate the walls that we have built around our hearts and minds in an attempt to shut out any intrusions from the world without. Indeed, may have built barriers around ourselves so that we are not exposed to the needs of others. The Shofar is the signal to break down these partitions, which separate us one from the other, and awaken our dormant consciences to respond to the many challenges that confront Jews and all decent human beings. Let us also realize that the Shofar is designed not just to blow, but also as a way to awaken our sleeping conscience. It should rouse us to action and serve as a signal for us to prepare to meet the moral and spiritual challenges that will confront us in the ensuing year. May the sound of the Shofar serve as a stimulus to dedicate ourselves in the coming year to a spiritual regeneration. May we all be blessed with a year filled with blessing and fortitude to triumph over all challenges. A happy and healthy 5778 to all!

With Blessings,

Rabbi Richard Kirsch
